

Carmella Johnson M.A.

The Les Brown Unlimited Team

Carmella Johnson is a Personal and Business Development Coach, Trainer, Transformational Speaker and member of the Les Brown Unlimited Team. The ingenious Carmella has been a leading-edge Mental Health and Marriage and Family Therapist, College Instructor of Psychology and Education, entrepreneur and business consultant for 26 years. This astute business woman owns three businesses: Carmella Johnson Consulting, "Excelling Beyond the Game" EBG a scholar-athlete development program that specializes in equipping youth with the life-skills and motivation needed to excel in the twenty-first century and Grande Vino Paint and Wine Tasting Company.

This dynamic transformation coach has a unique way of simplifying difficult situations and concepts for her clients. In both the coaching and business setting she examines the predicaments of her clients from various perspectives, unmask the core hindrances to their success, assists them in mapping out a strategic plan and works with them through the execution of the plan. Fundamentally, she takes her clients through a cognitive transformation which prompts life changing results. Whether speaking to 100's or a single individual she galvanizes each one to tap into their inner champion. Her passion, heartfelt concern and expertise allows her to connect with each individual on a personal level, helping them identify the caustic beliefs and negative thought patterns which are producing behaviors that yield undesirable results.

Carmella is like an oracle.... She sees things in you that you don't see in yourself and then she reshapes your mind to help you reach your limitless potential.
